

Acts 5:12-6:7 The Danger of Distraction

Into the Lesson:

Two recent news stories on the radio that followed one after the other included reports:

- The lines of mourners to pay respects to the late queen stretched over five miles and people were waiting 24 hours.
- In the Ukraine they discovered a mass grave with over 400 bodies.

What are some of the other evidences that we are living in strange confusing and troubling times?

- The LGBTQ; BLM; CRT and other "alphabet" groups that are on the rise.
- Recent television campaign ads.
- The dreaded bathroom tissue shortage of 2020.
- What are some other evidences?

Into the Word:

In previous messages, Lane has pointed out that while we are freely and safely gathering to worship, there are those around the world that are dying for their faith.

This portion of Acts although dealing primarily with the Apostles has implications for the whole church. Read and consider the actions of the Apostles and the troubling response of "those in charge"

This portion of Acts although dealing primarily with the Apostles has implications for the whole church. Read and consider the actions of the Apostles and the troubling response of "those in charge"

Actions:

Acts 5:12-16

Acts 5:21-26

Acts 5:29-32 and 41-42

Acts 6:1

Response:

Acts 5:17-18

Acts 5:27-28

Acts 5:33 & 40

Acts 6:6 (b) - 7

Although the Apostles are the main characters in this portion of the explosive growth of the church, the believers were not sitting on the sidelines.

Look at the following verses to discover what the rest of the Body of Christ was up to:

Acts 5:11; 13-16-

Acts 5:26; 42-

Acts 6:3; 5-7

Into Life:

From Lane's sermon, "I want to be part of a church that changes lives-that prepares people for our future and our destiny..."

What are some things we can do to make this happen?

How can we begin to confront some of the "difficulties" that seems to be such a prevalent part of our culture?

How important is prayer in this process?

What are other ministry areas that you see that you think could help direct our destiny?

We will pray that God will raise up those who are gifted and available...
